

Fairfield Ludlowe High School
HEADMASTER'S MONTHLY REPORT
January, 2018

Student and Teacher Achievements

- Music –Our a cappella group Close Harmony along with our Choir Director, Lauren Pine, competed in the 10th annual Wyvern A Cappella Festival held January 27th. They presented two songs in front of a professional panel of a cappella directors, sound engineers, arrangers and college music professors and placed 3rd in the competition. The funds raised from admission will go to a project called Tobati, which helps maintain school parks and supported many vaccination clinics in the surrounding villages and community of Tobati. The cast members are: Kieran Brown, Fiona Carter, Logan Ciuci, Maddie McDermott, Kalle Meehan, Julia Morin, Grace Murphy, Alex Therriault, Ella Therriault, Aleksandra Suvorova, Nicole Varvaras, Jackson Bauer, Andrew Bergquist, Alex Bow, Blaise Carter, Ayhan Eyikan, Luc Gervais, Jack Hogarth, Aidan Kilgallon, Jack Owens, Liam Rosengren, and Mason Zane.
- Falcon of the Month – Students that were recognized this month for our core value Commitment are: Matt Borjes, Nick Tenreiro, Payton Siegel, Ethan Beri, Michael Anastasio, Victor Asael Corona Galan, Luke Lomma, William von Brauchitsch, Lauren Steensma. Faculty recognized: Benjamin Francois, Kelly Linane, Kathy Morehouse.
- Art – The Scholastic Art Award of CT announced the statewide winners for 2018. The students chosen from FLHS are: Luka Holderied, Pheobe Nulf, Renee Parent, Nora Reidy, Beck Socia, and Emily Van Winkle. Fairfield did extremely well against other districts this year and the students selected to participate are considered the “best of the best” in the state and will be honored in Hartford on June 28th. The gold key winners have the opportunity to compete nationally. Congratulations to our talented students. Thank you teachers, Michele Hermsen, Monica Cimina, Johanna Estevez, Mary Calkins, Virginia Zimmermann for all you do.
- Sports – Indoor track competed in the FCIAC championship yesterday
- Maya Mocarski finished first in the 55-meter dash
- Tess Stapleton finished first in both the 55-meter hurdles and the high jump. Tess also placed second in the long jump
- Alyssa Kraus placed 2nd in the 1000 meter
- Keegan Simonsen placed 2nd in the 1600 meter
- Jackson Hemphill finished first in the pole vault
- Ben Mellor, Ethan Lovallo, Kabir Chavan and Colin Agostisi placed 3rd in the 4x800 relay
- Ian Bartlett placed 2nd in the 1000 meter
- Carter Lambo, Greg Arrigo, Dillon Buongiorno and Ian Bartlett placed 2nd in the 1600 sprint medley

Congratulations winners and all other athletes who qualified for this championship meet.

Last, but certainly not least, our girls basketball team is having an awesome season. They were named the Ruden Report Team of the Week for wins over Trinity and New Canaan; additionally, they had a huge win against Darien to clinch a berth in the State playoffs. CONGRATULATIONS LADY FALCONS!!