At the end of your child's V.I.P. week (Friday), we would love to have you join us to read your child's favorite picture book to our class. Please email me at the start of the week to arrange your visit. If you can't come in, please do not worry about it; I promise that I will enthusiastically read your child's book!😊

Remember; have fun preparing for this special week with your child!
