

1L's Weekly News - Week of October 26th

Dates to Remember:

- * Due to last Friday's early dismissal, the Dwight-a-thon has been rescheduled, and will take place this Monday, October 26th at 2:00. All parents are invited to join us!
- * This Wednesday, October 28th and Thursday, October 29th there will be early dismissal at 1:40 due to conferences.
- * Dwight's All-School Halloween parade will take place this Friday, October 30th at 2:00. Our party in 1L will follow. Students should bring (not wear) costumes to school. All parents are invited to attend these fun events. ☺
- * There is no school next Tuesday, November 3rd due to teacher professional development.
- * Picture Retake Day is scheduled for Friday, November 6th.

Reader's Workshop:

We will spend this week reading and talking about books with partners. Our readers are doing a great job sharing "just right" books together.

Writer's Workshop:

This week in Writer's Workshop we will wrap up our narrative unit by talking about how to write good endings to our stories.

Math:

This week in Math we will wrap up our first unit by continuing to practice skip counting.

Word Work:

Our new Word Wall Words are: be, do, has, how, went.

Science/Social Studies:

We are wrapping up our first Science unit and will soon begin our first Social Studies unit all about "The People In Your Neighborhood". Stay tuned for more information about this unit!

Odds and Ends:

- * Please make sure that your child's weekly homework sheet is kept in his/her folder all week. Thanks!
- * Please remember that library books should be returned to school on or before a "C" day. (Unless, of course, your reader is not finished with them!) That way, your child can check out new books for the week.
