

1L's Weekly News - Week of November 25th

Dates to Remember:

* This Wednesday, November 27th we have a 1:40 dismissal, and no school on Thursday, November 28th or Friday, November 29th due to the Thanksgiving holiday. I wish you a wonderful time with your families.

* Save the Date! Our Gingerbread House celebration will take place on Friday, December 13th from 9:45-11:00. All parents are invited to attend! A letter with more information will be coming home in your child's folder after Thanksgiving.

Reader's Workshop:

This week in Reader's Workshop we'll spend some time reviewing what makes a good "book nook" in 1L.

Writer's Workshop:

In Writer's Workshop we will continue our author study, all about Ezra Jack Keats. We will talk about using ellipses in our stories.

Math:

This week in Math we'll learn some fun games to reinforce all of the addition and subtraction work we've been doing in 1L.

Word Work:

There will be no new Word Wall words or word families this week. Please continue to practice the "oldies, but goodies" at home!

Science/Social Studies:

* A big first grade thank you to Mrs. Feher for coming in to talk to 1L (and 1P!) about her career as a nurse!

* We are very excited to welcome parent visitors into 1L over the next few weeks!

It's not too late to volunteer to come in and talk to our class.

Odds and Ends:

* Because of the short week and the upcoming Thanksgiving holiday, there will be no homework in first grade this week.

* Please remember that library books should be returned to school on or before Tuesday morning. (Unless, of course, your reader is not finished with them!) That way, your child can check out five new books for the week. Thanks!
