

This is Dwight School. You will be coming to Dwight School for Kindergarten.

2015

This is the hallway at Dwight School.

This is Mrs. Maniscalco. She is the principal at Dwight.

This is Mrs. Varga, Mrs. Ficalora, and Mrs. Dyer. They work in the office at Dwight.

This is Mrs. French. She helps students at Dwight.

This is the nurse, Mrs. Corona. She will help you if you are sick or hurt.

This is where the children eat lunch and it is called the APR.

There are three kindergarten teachers at Dwight. Here is Ms. Lahiff.

This is Mrs. Kalamaras in her kindergarten classroom.

This is Mrs. Rafsky in her kindergarten class.

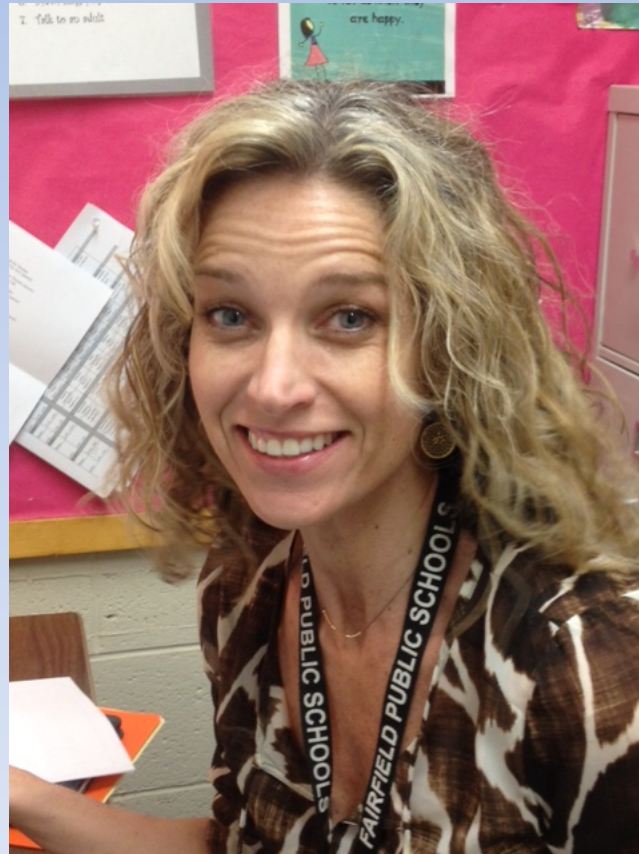

Here is what a kindergarten classroom looks like. In kindergarten we learn many things. We also have centers, where we play with our friends. Our teachers read fun books to us.

This is Mrs. Balgach. She helps children make friends. She plays lots of games with the children.

Say hello to Mrs. Sabrowski. She helps kids make friends and be happy at Dwight School.

This is Mrs. Husted. You can call her Mrs. H., too. She is a teacher and helps children learn.

Mr. Gelsi is our PE teacher.
He works in the Gym.
You will have fun in PE class.

Ms. Henion teaches Art. In her class we draw, color, work with clay, and do projects.

Children sing, dance and learn about music from Mrs. Doherty.

This is the LMC. You can take books out of the library and bring them home. Mrs. Robinson is our Library Media Specialist and she helps children use our computers and find fun books!

Miss Liz and Mr. Paul make sure Dwight is clean and safe everyday.

We get our lunch
in the cafeteria.
This is Mrs.
Fredericks. She makes good food
for lunch.
You can order
lunch or bring lunch from home.

At the end of the day, you line up with your class to take the bus home. Bye, Dwight. See you tomorrow!
