This letter is to invite you to an important informational evening related to the student choice of courses for the upcoming school year:

Course Selection Information Night
January 29, 2014
7:00 p.m.
Fairfield Ludlowe High School Auditorium

The process will begin in early February. It is important that students and parents are informed about the expectations and requirements of the courses the students request. We will be providing a number of opportunities for students and parents to be informed, including student assemblies, conversations with teachers, counselors, and administrators, a thorough Program of Studies book, a website with course syllabi, sample tasks, and exemplary student work examples, as well as the evening event mentioned above.

Topics of the evening include:

- The entire course selection process
- The differences between Advanced Placement, Honors, and College Preparatory courses
- Brief overviews of core curriculum areas
- Information regarding Advanced Placement courses
- Review of the change of program policy

It is very important that students make informed choices as we base our decisions about the sections we offer based on the courses requested by students in February. Continued increased enrollment gives us limited flexibility in changing schedules. Please use the resources we provide in order to make a strong commitment to courses that are requested.

We look forward to seeing you on the evening of January 29 at 7:00 pm.
