Student Film Club

Advisor(s): Mr. Siano

Meetings: Room 251, B week

Student Film Club (previously Amateur Film Club) is dedicated to the production of films and videos made by the students of Fairfield Ludlowe High School. Student members can expect to learn about movie-making skills and opportunities for applying those skills locally. Time will also be spent analyzing both peer films as well those of the greats throughout history to create stronger comprehension for the art of film. The club is not selective and all members will be given the chance to contribute. Much like the film industry of reality, the most passionate and persuasive individuals will be the most successful members of the club. Professional Film Club is recommended for any person with an interest in pursuing film both as a hobby and as a career.

Students Against Human Exploitation

Advisors: Ms. Marchello

Meetings: Room 215, B week

Our club is seeking motivated individuals who are willing to get involved in the fight to stop the various forms of human exploitation happening within our own community, nationally, and internationally. Students can expect to participate in discussions about human exploitation in order to become more knowledgeable about this issue. We will be teaming up with various organizations to help spread awareness about this issue. Furthermore, the club seeks to directly take action to minimize the instances of human exploitation.

Teens for Tolerance Club:

Advisor: Ms. Hogarth, Ms. Longobucco

Meetings: Room 205, A week

Teens for Tolerance is a school club, striving to promote acceptance, positivity, and a welcoming atmosphere. Aiming to create our own community in FLHS, we strive for these goals through various campaigns and social events with other classmates and clubs. Together, we run campaigns such as "The R-Word Campaign" and "Project Post", both promoting acceptance and optimism. Inclusion and friendship are our main priorities, and we successfully spread this throughout every school year!
