

Fairfield Ludlowe High School
HEADMASTER'S MONTHLY REPORT
December 2017

Student and Teacher Achievements

- Music – Our outstanding music teachers, Lynda Smith (strings), Lauren Pine (choirs), Nick Albano (band), Sam Eckhart (jazz ensemble) with their students once again mesmerized us with their moving performance of our traditional Candlelight Concert. FLHS is extremely fortunate to have such dedicated artists, both teachers and students.
- Drama- On December 1st and 2nd, the FLHS Drama Club presented the play FAKE NEWS. The kids did an awesome job. Thank you Fran Kondziela, Roger Mudre, and drama students, for another great performance.
- Falcon of the Month – Students that were recognized this month for our core value LEARNING are: Adithya Anand, Alissa Ceruzzi, Caroline Coccaro, Justin Do, Evelyn Hogarth, Emmet Kells, Allison Roll, Audrey Sharp. Paisley Coats, Chemistry Teacher, the faculty member nominated.
- Pupil Services and Counseling - Assisted with record-keeping and distribution of gift cards during the Compassion Committee's gift card drive. $2145 in gift cards had been collected which benefited over 25 FLHS district families.
- Science – Blood Drive - Jillian Mahar coordinated the Red Cross Club blood drive with the help of her student Red Cross Club officers, Sage Factora, Bonnie Pushner, Isabella Cassone, Michael Garbarino, and Isabella (Bella) Phillips. 41 pints were collected, more than the goal of 39. Each blood donation can save up to 3 lives, so 120 potential lives saved!! Way to go Red Cross Club. ☺
- College and Career Center - Hosted Career Day in December. It was a huge success and was coordinated by Alice Gorman of College and Careers and Diana Rainho, a teacher from our Business Department. Many presenters attended from Fairfield and other surrounding areas.
- Family Consumer Sciences – The Bella Boutique opened its doors on December 7th in the LLC with shoppers anxiously waiting at the door to purchase holiday gifts. Donna Huber and her students coordinated and ran the boutique and raised over $600. The proceeds were distributed between Americare and Operation Hope.
