A CHAPTER OF BEST BUDDIES IS COMING TO WARDE!

Join us for a parent and family information night on March 21st 5:30pm-7:00pm in the Lecture room.

If you are a student who wasn't able to attend one of the original info sessions, please feel free to join us on the 21st.

Best Buddies is the world's largest organization dedicated to ending the social, physical, and economic isolation of those living with intellectual and developmental disabilities (IDD). The program builds friendships between people with and without IDD, offering social mentoring while improving the quality of life and level of inclusion. In addition to the fun and rewarding experiences included in membership, there will be leadership opportunities within the chapter and access to a worldwide network of fellow Best Buddies volunteers. (You may also learn more about Best Buddies through their website, www.bestbuddies.org and www.bestbuddiesct.org).
