BOOK DRIVE

Fairfield Kiwanis Club is sponsoring the town-wide book drive that will benefit the Read to Grow program from March 10 through March 21. The collection box for gently-used or new books, appropriate for newborns to middle school age, is located in the Main Office. According to the Read to Grow organization, Connecticut's achievement gap is the largest in the nation, and more than one-third of kindergartners are unprepared to begin learning to read when they come to school. Being read to and owning books is a critical feature of every child's development, regardless of economic means..
