You must sign up for an audition timeslot by seeing Mr. Saad in T-9.

BOOK DRIVE

Fairfield Kiwanis Club is sponsoring the town-wide book drive that will benefit the Read to Grow program from March 10 through March 21. The collection box for gently-used or new books, appropriate for newborns to middle school age, is located in the Main Office. According to the Read to Grow organization, Connecticut's achievement gap is the largest in the nation, and more than one-third of kindergartners are unprepared to begin learning to read when they come to school. Being read to and owning books is a critical feature of every child's development, regardless of economic means..

SOCIAL MEDIA/INTERNET PRESENTATION

On March 24 at 7:30 PM in the RLMS Auditorium, Detective Beth Irizarry of the Fairfield Police Department will be giving the police department's perspective of what the Fairfield youth community is doing in social media and on the internet. She will be sharing what can get them in trouble with the law and schools, how they are overexposing themselves and what we can do to help protect them.

EARTH DAY ARTS CONTEST

Applications Due by 3/31/14 * All Participants Will Receive a Prize!

This year's Earth Day Contest theme is "I can make a difference by..." Students are encouraged to submit their interpretation of the theme in relation to the environment, sustainability, and how we each matter when it comes to environmental issues. Entries may be literature, art, or performances.
