FWHS OVERDUE TEXTBOOK RETURNS

Students need to return (or pay for) all overdue textbooks before purchasing prom tickets.

Textbooks can be returned to the book drop in the Fitts House Office. Books will be checked in throughout the day.

Students should see their deans with questions or to pay for lost textbooks.

Students or staff can email FWHSBookroom@fairfieldschools.org if they have any questions.

Warde TV: The crew is always looking for a good story! If there are students who would like to share topics with the school community, please let Mrs.Gartsu know and she can set up a time to send out a camera and interview team! Click on the link below to watch the archived episodes:

Warde Learning Commons News

Check out the many dynamic happenings in the Warde Learning Commons.

News: The LC is pleased to host a photography exhibit by Sam Walker and Ted Orben, titled respectively Birds Eye and India. Please stop by to view and enjoy the work of these talented students. Also, Ms. MacIntosh's Global Studies class has culminated their study of World War II with some excellent projects, which are also displayed around the LC. Check us out!!

The PTA sponsored an author visit from nationally acclaimed author Linnea Hartsuyker in the Learning Commons. She spoke with students about her writing process and her books that are now available in the library.

Make-IT programs: The Library Learning Commons now has Maker Kits that can be checked out by students for use in the Learning Commons. Kits include coding, logic puzzles, magnetic poetry, creating and construction. All students are invited to join the Maker Movement!

Warde TV: Warde TV is winding down the season and looking for new anchors and crew members. Students who wish to tryout as anchors should be current juniors who have excellent verbal and written skills, teamwork, commitment and professional appearance. Tryouts for next season's anchors are MAY 7 and MAY 14. If you are interested, see Mrs. Gartsu in the Learning Commons.
