

First Grade News

February 20, 2018

Dear Parents,
Here's our news for the week!

Conferences

They will take place next month. Please return the preference sheet as soon as possible.

Word Wall Words

The new words for the week are: could, back, by, our, put. Please practice these words at home by completing at least 3 spelling menu activities, including sentence writing. Kindly return the work by Friday. We will have a test on Friday which will include last week's words (big, boy, girl, in, they).

*We are working on remembering to begin each sentence with a capital letter and end with punctuation (!, ? or .).

Library Learning Commons

During LLC time the 1st graders created multimedia presentations in Wixie to explain the important role different community helpers play in our community. The presentations are available on the Virtual Library at:
